Columbia Personal Injury Attorney Recognized As ‘Rising Star’ For Third Consecutive Year

COLUMBIA, S.C. (April 24, 2015) – For Kenneth Berger, a Columbia personal injury attorney who began his practice sharing office space with Nationwide Insurance four years ago, the chances of being named a ‘Rising Star’ by Super Lawyers for three consecutive years seemed unlikely. However, with determination, a lot of heart and just enough capital, Berger beat the odds.

“Sharing space with Nationwide when 100 percent of our revenue came from taking on insurance companies wasn’t the smartest thing I ever did,” Berger said. “It was amazing if the printer, my one employee, and I were all working at the same time. We had no ability to print when I signed my first client.”

Berger, 33, used the entirety of his savings to open the Law Office of Kenneth E. Berger, LLC on Jan. 3, 2011. By the firm’s second anniversary, he had repaid himself, published two books, “Your Guide to South Carolina Personal Injury & Workers’ Compensation,” and “Safety First, Justice Always: Your Guide to South Carolina Auto Accident Law,” and received several outstanding reviews from both his clients and fellow attorneys. As a result, Berger landed his first rising star recognition in 2013 by Super Lawyers.

“That came as a surprise, especially since neither I nor any of my former classmates had been practicing long enough to have a vote. It was nice to know that attorneys I looked up to and respected were taking time to recognize my efforts.”

Super Lawyers is a prestigious rating service that distinguishes attorneys who go above and beyond in the United States. Only 2.5 percent of lawyers in South Carolina are eligible for rising star distinction. The attorney must be either 40-years-old or younger or in practice for 10 years or less. Those qualified then enter the association’s extensive, patented selection process.

Berger’s ‘Rising Star’ title motivates him to continue providing his clients with the greatest care possible and to positively impact the community.

“Awards are appreciated. However, at the end of the day, it continues to be about doing everything you can to help someone in need, and that’s exactly what I plan on doing for a long, long time.”
